

DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Stephen G. Rudisill on November 6, 2008.

Attorney agreed to cancel the claims 1-22, 26-35, 37-55, and 66.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 23-25, 36, 56-65, and 67-69 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art taken either singularly or in a combination fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitations of the independent claims, in such a manner that rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. The prior art fails to teach a combination of all the claimed features as presented in independent claim 36, which include, a method for aligning an optical beam relative to an optical bench having rotatably mounting an optical alignment element having a curved surface on a mounting surface of optical bench and in the path of optical beam mounting surface including at least one journal surface that engage at least portion of curved surface optical alignment element to support an optical element with permitting rotational movement of optical alignment element.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
